

CATALOG ADDENDUM
GENERAL ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS
COURT REPORTING PROGRAM &
COURSE DESCRIPTION – ENG106
Effective FEBRUARY 13, 2019
Page 32, 33, 120, 121 – Catalog 2018-2019 Fall Edition

AS OF FEBRUARY 13, 2019:

- Achieve an ACCUPLACER Next Generation Exam Reading Placement (Minimum 236), Writing Placement (Minimum 236) and Arithmetic (Minimum 236);
- Applicants scoring below a 236 on the ACCUPLACER Next Generation Exam Writing Placement will be placed in ENG001 Developmental English;

ENG106 College English I
3 Credits

Major emphasis will be placed on the grammatical, mechanical, and rhetorical conventions of college writing. The development of reading, writing, vocabulary, and critical thinking skills will be emphasized through a variety of reading selections, writing assignments, and related activities.

Prerequisite: Any of the following:

- Must pass Accuplacer Reading Comprehension (Minimum 55) and Accuplacer Sentence Skills (Minimum 60);
- Must pass WBST Verbal Skills (Minimum 200);
- Court Reporting program students must score 236 or above in Next Generation Reading and Writing placement exams;
- ENG001 Developmental English
- Special permission from the Associate Director of the department/Chairperson

